

Social Happenings in Towns of the State

BINGHAM.

The ball and banquet given Thursday evening by the Entre Nous club eclipsed anything given so far for the season, and an all sides there is general comment on its informality and snap which most balls lack. The hall was lavishly decorated in the club colors—red and yellow—intermingled with Japanese lanterns, which shed a soft and mellow light upon the gay throng. Cozy corners with the same artistic settings of colors and lights furnished pleasant nooks for the dancers. Booths were decorated in the same color scheme, in which were served delicious lunch, buffet, during the evening. The Fort Douglas orchestra was a treat that dance lovers did not fail to appreciate. A sumptuous banquet was served at the commodious and elegantly appointed dining room of the Hotel Elmerston. Thus closed the first club dance of the Entre Nous.

Mrs. W. J. Craig was up from the city Thursday to attend the Entre Nous ball.

Mrs. Coughlan, teacher at Upper Bingham, was at the city Saturday.

Mrs. F. E. Straup returned during the week from a leave from the city.

The Rathbone Sisters gave a surprise party at the home of Mrs. C. Taylor, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cornell, who have lately arrived from the "stricken city."

Whist was the amusement of the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Heberer and Mr. Christensen. Congratulations fell to Mrs. Christensen and Mr. Taylor. A delicious lunch was served to about twenty guests.

Mrs. Sorenson and Mrs. W. B. Richardson were city visitors during the week.

The grand concert given at the L. D. S. meeting house Friday evening was the most largely attended affair of its kind ever given in Bingham. Seating capacity was out of the question; dozens were standing in the aisles or seated in windows and on the roof.

The affair netted over $18 to the Relief society. The holder of the lucky ticket of the quilt proved to be Mrs. Farney of Highland Boy.

Mrs. N. C. Hair returned Thursday from the capital.

Otto Kappel returned Thursday from a jaunt to the city.

Mrs. H. J. Robinson was among city sojourners the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuge of Dalton & Lark royally entertained about forty of their friends at a banquet and hop at their home recently, the occasion being in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary.

American Beauty roses and carnations were the decorations and cast a ruby glow upon the heavily laden banquet board. The color scheme throughout was ruby, with a setting of white and most suggestive of the occasion in celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Fuge were presented with a handsome present by their many friends during the evening.

Mrs. Bertrand of Spokane, Wash., entertained the guests with several recitations in a delightful manner. Smith's orchestra from Lehi furnished excellent music and the gay dancers tripped the light fantastic until a late hour, when they departed for their homes with many expressions of having had a most delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins of Copperton were called to Provo by the death of Mrs. Wilkins' grandmother, Mrs. Wilkins, one of Utah's highly respected pioneers.
